MATERIALITY POLICY

This document sets out the materiality policy in connection with the identification of: (i) outstanding material litigation involving Arkade Developers Limited (Company), its Directors, its Promoters and its Subsidiaries; (ii) identification of its Group Company(ies); and (iii) the material creditors of the Company (collectively, the Materiality Policy), each in terms of the disclosure requirements under Schedule VI of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018, as amended (SEBI ICDR Regulations).

The Board of Directors of the Company (Board) at their meeting held on 1st August, 2023 discussed and approved this Materiality Policy. This Materiality Policy shall be effective from the date of approval of the Materiality Policy by the Board.

In this Materiality Policy, the term 'Issue Documents' shall mean the Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the Red Herring Prospectus and the Prospectus, and any addendum or corrigendum thereto to be filed and/or submitted by the Company in connection with the proposed initial public offering of its equity shares with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) or the Registrar of Companies, Maharashtra at Mumbai (RoC) or the stock exchanges where the equity shares of the Company are proposed to be listed, and/ or any other authorities, regulatory or otherwise, as applicable.

I. Materiality policy for litigation

In terms of SEBI ICDR Regulations, the Company is required to disclose the following pending litigation involving itself, its Directors, its Promoters, its Subsidiaries in the Issue Documents. Accordingly, the details below shall be disclosed for litigation involving the Company, its Directors, its Promoters and its Subsidiaries:

- a. All outstanding criminal proceedings (including first information reports);
- b. All outstanding actions by statutory and/ or regulatory authorities;
- c. Outstanding claims related to direct and indirect taxes, in a consolidated manner giving details of number of cases and total amount; and
- d. Other pending litigations/arbitration proceedings - As per the policy of materiality defined by the Board and disclosed in the Issue Documents.

Additionally, in terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, the Company is required to disclose (i) any disciplinary action (including any penalty) imposed by SEBI or any of the stock exchanges against any of the Promoters in the 5 (five) financial years preceding the date of the relevant Issue Document as well as in current year in which the relevant Issue Document is getting filed, including any outstanding action; and (ii) outstanding litigation (including first information reports) involving the Group Company(ies), which may have a material impact on the Company, as applicable.

For purposes of (d) above, all outstanding litigation/ arbitration proceedings (other than those covered under (a) - (c) above) involving the Company, its Directors, its Promoters and its Subsidiaries shall be considered “material” and disclosed in the Issue Documents: (i) if the aggregate monetary amount of claim made by or against the entity or person in any such pending proceeding exceeds 2% of the net worth of the Company as per the latest completed fiscal year in the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company to be included in the Issue Documents; or (ii) where monetary liability is not determinable or quantifiable for any other outstanding proceeding, or which does not fulfil the financial threshold specified in (i) above, but the outcome of any such pending proceeding may have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, performance, prospects, position or reputation of the Company.

Further, as per the requirements of SEBI ICDR Regulations, the Company shall also disclose such outstanding litigation (including first information reports) involving its Group Company(ies) which has a material impact (as determined by the Board) on the Company.

Pre-litigation notices received by the Company, its Directors, its Promoters, its Subsidiaries or its Group Company(ies), from third parties (excluding notices from statutory, regulatory or tax authorities or notices threatening criminal action) shall not be evaluated for materiality until the Company, its Directors, its Promoters, its Subsidiaries or its Group Company(ies), is impleaded in proceedings before any judicial/ arbitral forum.

II. Materiality policy for group companies

In terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, the term ‘group companies’ includes:

- a. Such companies (other than promoters and subsidiaries) with which the relevant issuer company had related party transactions, during the period for which financial information is disclosed in the relevant Issue Documents, as covered under the applicable accounting standards; and

- b. Any other companies considered material by the Board.

In accordance with the aforementioned thresholds at paragraph II(a) and II(b), the Company does not have any Group Company.
